The Lion In Winter—Opens January 26!

Sibling rivalry, adultery and dungeons – The Lion in Winter, by James Goldman, is a modern day classic. Comedic in tone, dramatic in action – the play tells the story of the Plantagenet family who are locked in a free for all of competing ambitions to inherit a kingdom. The queen, and wealthiest woman in the world, Eleanor of Aquitaine, has been kept in prison since raising an army against her husband, King Henry II. Let out only for holidays, the play centers around the inner conflicts of the royal family as they fight over both a kingdom, as well as King Henry's paramour during the Christmas of 1183. As Eleanor says, "every family has its ups and downs," and this royal family is no exception.

Directed by Brian M. Everitt; Assisted by Patricia Strachan; Produced by Deborah Ruth

The Lion in Winter: The show has been cast, and rehearsals for this classic "Dramedy" are already on their way. We are looking for folks who can make a big commitment, or just a few hours; YOU are needed. We are still looking for a couple more Crew Heads, specifically Set-Dressing. Of course, more Set Construction help is always welcome. As for Crew, we will be looking for: Stage Crew (who will be likely be in costume on stage as an extra); Tech; Costumes (sewing not always necessary but is a plus); and Hair & Make-up. Let's put the Community back in Community Theatre. Join the fun (and yes, we mean FUN)! Contact Producer, Debbie Ruth at 616-283-8629 or email DeborahOzga72@gmail.com for more info.

In Memory

Patricia Scott Welsh, 86, passed on Dec. 12, 2016 from complications related to Parkinson's Disease. She was born in Portland, Maine to the late John Scott and Jean Black, and was predeceased by her husband, Norman Karl Welsh. Pat was a member of the Holland Community Theater for many years, a member of two book clubs, and enjoyed sailing, golf, amateur theater and her friends. She attended University of Michigan and is an alumna of Michigan State University. A championship swimmer as a young woman, she is a member of the Maine Swimming and Diving Hall of Fame, and taught swimming for Holland Public Schools for many years. She is survived by two sons, Scott Welsh of Holland and Mark Welsh (Theresa); her grandson, Nathaniel Welsh of Atlanta, Georgia; brother, John Scott of Florida; cousin, John Savage of San Antonio, Texas; and in-laws, Donald Philip Welsh and Jacqueline Welsh and their family of Allegan. A celebration service will be held in the spring. In lieu of flowers, please consider a gift to one of her many causes and the Parkinson's Associate of West Michigan.

The Commons reACTORS Readers Theatre

Another year, more adventures! The calendar turns, making it a time for new beginnings. We will open our ninth season with a growing membership and diverse venues. Reader's Theatre is not for the faint of hearts. We perform with very few, if any, props or costumes, no scenery, no lights, and no mics. And yet, our actors must tell a story that engages and entertains their audience. That is skillfully done with facial expression, gestures, voice inflections and rehearsals.

We would love to have you join us and "give it a try"! So, call Liz Barveld at 616-399- 0914 or Marie Hamilton at 616-392-1209 for additional information. You can also just stop by on any given Thursday from 3-5pm in the Study Hall of the Commons of Evergreen.

We double dog dare ya!!!

Two great ways to support HCT

Without costing you anything!

Save your D&W and Family Fare Receipts!!!

Holland Civic Theatre has the opportunity to earn $1,000 from SpartanNash, simply by shopping at any local company-owned store, including Family Fare Supermarkets and D&W Fresh Markets. Through the Direct Your Dollars program, we can turn eligible receipts into cash for our organization!

It's easy to help us "Direct Your Dollars." Every time you shop at any Family Fare Supermarket or D&W Fresh Market, save your receipts. We'll be collecting them in our Direct Your Dollars box, located by the concessions window.

For every $150,000 in receipts we collect, we will earn $1,000 donation from SpartanNash. With your support – and your receipts – we'll be raising money to purchase items needed.

If you aren't able to drop your receipts off in person, you can also mail them to:
50 West 9th Street
Holland, MI 49423.

We do need original receipts to earn the $1,000 donation, so please no photocopies.

This is a way that family and friends in any of the 10 states that SpartanNash has stores can help raise support for Holland Civic Theatre just by sending their receipts! The following are stores that are part of SpartanNash: Bag 'n Save, Dan's Supermarket, D&W Fresh Market, Econofoods, Family Fare Supermarket, Family Fresh Market, Family Thrift Center, Forest Hills Foods, Fresh City Market, No Frills, Sun Mart, Supermercado Nuestra Familia, ValuLand and VG's Food and Pharmacy.

Thanks to the Direct Your Dollars program, we can raise money for Holland Civic Theatre as we shop for our groceries each week. Start saving those receipts! We'll continue collecting them throughout the year.
